

Request for Applications (RFA) Frequently Asked Questions

Kenya 2026

I am originally from Nairobi but currently live and work in a different county. Can I apply?

The application is open for people currently working in Kajiado, Narok, Machakos, Makueni, Kiambu, and/or Nairobi Counties. After the Leadership and Advocacy Accelerator training, we expect the new Rise Up Leaders to implement what they learn and impact women, girls, and/or gender-nonconforming people living in these areas.

My organization is a national organization with programs and offices across Kenya. Am I still eligible to apply if my organization works in other counties in addition to those listed above?

Yes! Employees of organizations working in multiple counties are eligible to apply to be a Rise Up Leader if your organization also runs programs in Kajiado, Narok, Machakos, Makueni, Kiambu, and/or Nairobi and is interested in advancing gender equity and girls' education in these areas.

Am I required to be fluent in English?

We ask that applicants can understand verbal English and have an intermediate proficiency level in speaking and writing in English.

What is the expected time commitment?

We ask that applicants can participate in a week-long training from November 2-7, 2026, with availability to attend several one- to two-hour virtual sessions before and after the in-person workshop.

What kind of resources will be available during the training?

Rise Up Together will cover all costs related to program participation, including transportation, accommodation, meals, and materials.

What is the word limit for my answers?

There is no word limit. However, in your application, we ask that you please make your answers as concise and clear as possible.

Why do you need my organization's information? How will that impact my ability to participate in the program?

We request information about the organization you work or volunteer for because understanding your organization's details are crucial for ensuring they align with the objectives of the Rise Up Together Leadership and Advocacy Accelerator training program. If you work at multiple organizations, please complete this section, and the remainder of the application based on the organization whose work is most relevant to the Rise Up Together program. An applicant's organization must support the applicant's participation in the Rise Up Together Leadership and Advocacy Accelerator training and be willing to support the leader during project implementation.

What is the level of commitment of an organization?

If you are selected as a Rise Up Leader, your organization must allow your participation during the virtual sessions and the in-person residential training and be interested in you sharing what you learn with other members of the organization. Additionally, if selected for funding, the organization will support you during the implementation of a Rise Up Together-funded project. If you want to compete for funds and your organization is not legally registered or cannot receive international funds, you and your organization must identify a fiscal sponsor organization that can receive funds.

I am the founder of my own organization. Can I list it as my organization?

Yes, if your organization is related to one of the Rise Up Together thematic areas of health, education, economic opportunity, and climate solutions for women, girls, and gender-nonconforming people.

I don't have a supervisor. Should I leave that question blank?

Do not leave this question blank. If you do not have a person that directly supervises your work, you may mention the name of the person who works with you and knows your work well. For example, if you are a Director, you may list your Executive Director, or if you are the Executive Director, you may list the name of a board member.

When will I hear back from the Rise Up Together team about selection?

We will be reviewing applications and conducting interviews with finalists over Zoom and WhatsApp in August 2026. Once all interviews are completed, the Rise Up Together team will select the final 25 candidates for the Kenya cohort. Only accepted applicants will receive final decision letters by the end of September 2026.

I have a question that is not on this FAQ. Who do I contact?
